

Brothers and Sisters,

Local 1-2 Remembers on this Veterans Day, November 11, 2015

From this day to the ending of the world,
But we in it shall be remembered-
We few, we happy few, we band of brothers;
For he to-day that sheds his blood with me
Shall be my brother; be he ne'er so vile,
This day shall gentle his condition...

Wm. Shakespeare, "Henry V"

On the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month in 1918 the "war to end all wars" ceased.

Since that day Americans have paused every November 11 to celebrate and remember, not just those who gave their lives in service to the country, but to all Veterans who served, living and dead.

Today, we ask all Brothers and Sisters of Local 1-2 to pause for two minutes at 11 a.m. to remember and reflect on all those men and women who served, or are serving today in war-torn corners of the globe, for their commitment, courage and sacrifice for their fellow Americans.
